Pondsmead is a stunning country mansion situated in beautiful gardens in the lovely village of Oakhill, within easy access of Bath, Frome and Wells.

The building is a converted mansion, having been extensively and lovingly restored and refurbished, whilst retaining all of its original features.

It offers comfortable and modern accommodation in a magnificent atmosphere.

All bedrooms are en-suite and individually designed.

Our focus has been on the social areas in the home offering a diverse choice to our residents and giving them the opportunity to either entertain family and friends or relax in a peaceful and unique environment.

Pondsmead welcomes up to 70 residents in bespoke, en-suite rooms.

Residents have the choice of having afternoon tea in the beautiful drawing room with its unique panelled walls or in our glorious library.

We pride ourselves on our dining room which has been designed to a bespoke and very high standard of luxury with stunning views over the gardens.

We place a lot of emphasis on providing a very extensive programme of activities including Dance Classes, Sculpture, Pottery, Musical Entertainment, Arts and Crafts and our very popular Cinema Club.

The Care is designed to meet and satisfy the requirements of every single client that joins Pondsmead. We strive to provide our clients with excellent care.

Our team is led by a very experienced Manager who is assisted by a highly qualified clinical and housekeeping team

Our hospitality team provide our clients with a comprehensive menu, catering for everyone's requirements and tastes.
